	How do you find out if you have been granted an eVisitor?
	The department will send you an email once a decision has been made on your eVisitor application, therefore, it is important that you enter a correct email address into the application form.
	Make sure that the email you use is still valid, that the storage capacity is not full and that your email spam scanner will accept emails from immi.gov.au. You should check your junk email box on a regular basis to ensure messages from the department have not been incorrectly identified as spam.
	Travelling with children who are included in your passport?
	All travellers must have their own visa or eVisitor to travel to Australia, even where there is more than one person included on a passport. If you have children included on your passport, they cannot be included on your eVisitor application and are required to submit their own applications.
	When you apply for a visa or eVisitor for children who are included on your passport, you will need to enter the passport details exactly as they appear in your own passport, replacing the name, date of birth, sex and country of birth with your children's details as they appear in your passport.	«Next»
	Completing this application form
	For helpful information when completing the eVisitor application form, click on the help icon 🎱 for a detailed explanation of what the question is asking you.
	You can save your application at any time by clicking on the Save button at the bottom of the screen and then entering a password of your choice. You should record the Saved Application ID and your password so you can retrieve your partially completed application in the future.
	Carefully consider all of the above information before you continue with this eVisitor application.
